Amazon donates school supplies to the Center that CARES

Workforce Staffing in conjunction with Women in Pittsburgh and leadership members delivered over 5,000 back to school items to the Center that CARES located in downtown Pittsburgh. The Center that CARES is a center that is dedicated to the development and enrichment of pre-k to college age youth, primarily living in the Hill District.

Did You Know? – Career Skills Program

We have several programs that are designed to give the associates a way to move into a more highly-skilled career by providing the training and industry certification needed to make it happen. This provides a huge opportunity for anyone who needs more technical skills to move into better paying roles.

Warriors@Amazon is an officially recognized Amazon Affinity Group that was established on Sept 11, 2011. We are Amazonians who served in their respective country's military forces, those who are still serving, their families, and all Amazon employees who support them.

Amazon Affinity Group Spotlight

"We actively seek leaders who can invent, think big, has bias for action and deliver results on behalf of our customers. These principles look very familiar to men and women who have served our country in the armed forces, and we find that their experience leading people is invaluable in our fast-paced work environment." - Jeff Bezos

Amazon Employee Spotlight
-Brittney White

“ Just remember to always work hard to achieve your goals because when you do it will all be worth it!

Brittney started with Amazon in January of 2021. She began her Amazon career as a Tier 1 associate at our PIT2 fulfillment Center in the Inventory Control and Quality Assurance (ICQA) department. Shortly after being apart of that team, she was chosen to become the Learning Ambassador for that department and from there moved into the Envoy program. Brittney excelled in that program and has now moved into a permanent L2 Staffing Administrator role for Workforce Staffing. In her free time, Brittney enjoys singing karaoke and sketching designs.
