

$40,000 per year

Plus benefits

for qualified candidates

Facilities Coordinator

LOOKING FOR A NEW CAREER Opportunities for Advancement

A new JLL backed program designed to prepare people to begin a high paying career path in facilities maintenance, engineering, and management

What

- No-cost, $25/day stipend, two-week, interactive training program including AR simulation training, stacked credentials
- All grads will be interviewed by JLL, who is looking to fill these positions early this fall

When

- Currently offering only 1 cohort beginning September 20, 2021
- 2 weeks - Monday through Friday, 9am to 4 pm

Where

- Energy Innovation Center Institute,
1435 Bedford Ave, Pittsburgh, PA 15219, Classroom 115

CONTACT: Dan Esterly desterly@eicpittsburgh.org
412.440.7167

Jones Lang LaSalle in collaboration with The Energy Innovation Center Institute is offering limited spots for a training program in an exciting career opportunity.

- Starting at $19.23/hr - $40,000/yr
- All fulltime employees receive a generous benefit package through JLL's health and welfare plans
- Qualifications include:
 - High School diploma or GED
 - Submit to drug and background checks
 - Team player, hard worker, good interpersonal and communications skills, safety oriented
 - Physically able to work with heavy tools operate equipment, work on a ladder, lift and carry heavy loads
 - Some computer skills and ability to learn to work with various systems and trouble shoot malfunctions
- Complete training at the Energy Innovation Center and ongoing training, and OJT with assessments.